

Barry Jay Frankel

Senior Advisor

Barry Frankel has nearly 30 years experience with real estate programs and policies of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

After 14 years as Director of Real Estate (Senior Executive, level 5), Headquarters, US Army Corps of Engineers, few people understand federal acquisition, outleasing and disposal issues and policies better than Barry. He also managed the Recruiting Facilities and the Homeowners Assistance programs for the Defense Department.

Barry's federal service also includes seven years as Deputy Director of Real Estate and five years as the Chief of Real Estate, Baltimore District, US Army Corps of Engineers.

A graduate of Engineer OCS, Barry served in a Construction Battalion in Vietnam and then as Counsel to the Chief of Real Estate, Central Real Estate Office, 1st Log Command. He separated from service as a Captain.

Other Experience

- Helped develop and justify base closure positions of successive BRAC commissions

Education

MPA, American University

JD, Brooklyn Law School

University of Buffalo

Industrial College of the Armed Forces

Memberships and citations

Presidential Meritorious Rank
Award (1990 and 1997)

Contact

bfrankel@dawsonassociates.com